Anti-Ragging & Sexual Harassment Committee

Ragging typically refers to a form of initiation ritual in educational institutions, where new students are subjected to harassment or humiliation by older students. "Anti-ragging" would involve activities or measures aimed at preventing or stopping such behavior. Ragging is totally banned in the college if any student found misbehaving with any other student then he is punished by the cell members, in accordance with the provisions of the Law.

Vision of "Anti-Ragging & Sexual Harassment Committee"

- To ensure a safe, respectful, and supportive environment within educational institutions by actively preventing and addressing instances of ragging.
- To create a campus culture where every student feels safe, respected, and valued, free from the fear of harassment or humiliation.
- To create an educational environment that fosters camaraderie, empathy, and mutual support among students, contributing to their holistic development and academic success.
- To upholding the principles of dignity, inclusivity, and accountability.
- To cultivate a sense of belonging and community spirit, where students can thrive academically, socially, and emotionally.
- To nurture a culture of mutual respect and responsibility, where every member of the campus community actively contributes to the prevention and elimination of ragging.
- To emulate our commitment to creating a safer and more inclusive educational environment for all.

Mission of "Anti-Ragging & Sexual Harassment Committee"

Our mission is to foster a campus environment free from the menace of ragging, where every student can pursue their education in a safe, respectful, and supportive atmosphere. To achieve this, the Anti-Ragging Committee is dedicated to the following:

- To educate students about the consequences of ragging and promote positive behavior.
- To detect early signs of ragging and promptly intervene to prevent escalation.
- To victims of ragging, including counseling, guidance, and legal assistance, and help them cope with the trauma and seek justice.
- Enforcing disciplinary measures in accordance with institutional policies and legal provisions against perpetrators of ragging, ensuring accountability and deterrence.
- To Collaborating with relevant stakeholders, including students, faculty, staff, parents, law enforcement agencies, and community organizations and to mobilize collective action and resources in the fight against ragging.
- To create a legal framework that effectively deters and punishes ragging offenders.
- Regularly assessing the effectiveness of anti-ragging measures, gathering feedback from stakeholders, and incorporating lessons learned to continuously improve our strategies and interventions.

Objective of Anti-Ragging & Sexual Harassment Committee

- To ensure the safety, well-being, and psychological integrity of students.
- To raise awareness about the negative consequences of ragging and promote a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity among students
- To create a safe and conducive learning environment where every student feels respected, valued, and free from any form of harassment or intimidation.
- To address any ragging issues immediately and taken action as advised by cell.
